

Duckin' Around

With
Maurice Duckson

By "DUCK" DUCKSON

With but one football game remaining in the 1954 season, the Thanksgiving morning battle between Washington-Lee and George Washington in Alexandria, the Daily Sun sports desk would like to pass on its appreciation for game coverage to the teams who have completed their schedule. Without the combined efforts of the coaching staffs, school reporters and school officials, it would have been impossible to report the exacting coverage afforded in each particular case. More than willing to take time out in giving details and colorful descriptions of games and players, were Wakefield head coach DICK "TANK" JOHNSON, and assistants BILL EDMONDON, backfield coach, WALTER SCHULTE, line coach, VIC BLUE, junior varsity coach, and JESSE MEEKS, junior high coach. Also available for comment were school officials MILO SONEN and MORT IRWIN, along with school sport reporter and spotter DICK MASON and school photographer STEVE MOORE, who supplied action shots clearly depicting highlights of the Warriors games. Washington-Lee was afforded on the spot coverage from junior varsity coach HARVY SHIPMAN and team manager DON HALLINGER, as the Jayvees completed one of the best records in school annuals, with an unbeaten mark in seven games, tied only by Wakefield in the last battle of the season.